

COMMUNITY

CATHRYN ATKINSON/THE CHIEF
TOP LEFT: Counsellor Dale Harry of the Squamish Nation welcomes visitors and blesses the festival at the Gala evening at the West Coast Railway Heritage Park on Friday (Feb. 16).

GARRY BROECKLING/
SPECIAL TO THE CHIEF
TOP RIGHT: Ivan Sayers and his glamorous model show off travel wear from the early 20th century at a special fashion show at the West Coast Railway Heritage Park on Sunday (Feb. 18).

CAROLYN GRASS/
SPECIAL TO THE CHIEF
MIDDLE RIGHT: West Coast diva Dana-Marie Battaglia joins a great group of women performing at the Gelato Carina on Sunday (Feb. 18).

GARRY BROECKLING/
SPECIAL TO THE CHIEF
LEFT: Anybody going to Squamish, man? A blast from the 60s past at the Ivan Sayers fashion show.

GARRY BROECKLING/
SPECIAL TO THE CHIEF
BOTTOM RIGHT: Squamish's MLA Joan McIntyre (left) snags the very first piece of cake from Wild At Art director Carolyn Grass at the Gala evening to launch the festival on Friday (Feb.16). The location was the shed housing the Royal Hudson Steam Engine and dozens of works of art by local artists.

